

Goings On About Town: Classical Music

Lucy Shelton

Columbia's Italian Academy has become a locus for offbeat concerts, usually with a Mediterranean accent. This one, offered by the invaluable veteran soprano Lucy Shelton, centers on vocal chamber music by such composers as Domenico Gabrielli, Morton Feldman, and Elliott Carter; she'll be accompanied by a distinguished little band that includes the cellist Fred Sherry and the oboist Stephen Taylor. (1161 Amsterdam Ave. Feb. 2 at 8. For information about free tickets, which are required, call 212-854-1623.)

Date: February 2