

CLASSICAL MUSIC

THE NEW YORKER

CLASSICAL MUSIC

MARCY ROSEN AND THE MOMENTA QUARTET

March 30 2016

A New York legend of the cello joins the enterprising young ensemble for an adventure into the past, at Columbia University's Italian Academy: a program of works by Boccherini, the doyen of the Spanish court and one of the great composer-cellists. It features a string quartet and a quintet by the galante master as well as an intimate rendition of the Cello Concerto in G Major, G. 480.

Italian Academy Teatro (<http://www.newyorker.com/goings-on-about-town/venue/italian-academy-teatro>)

N.Y.

10027, New York 10027

<http://www.italianacademy.columbia.edu/> (<http://www.italianacademy.columbia.edu/>)

212-854-1623

GET TICKETS
