

A Fresh View Primo Levi's Complete Works

A dialogue between Ann Goldstein & Marco Belpoliti, editors of Levi in 2015–2016

The Italian Academy

Columbia University

1161 Amsterdam Av.

(south of 118th St.) NYC

Free & open to the public.

Registration requested:

italianacademy.columbia.edu

Best known as an Italian Jewish survivor of the Auschwitz concentration camp who wrote lucid testimony about wartime, Primo Levi (1919–1987) also published essays, poetry, commentary, and fiction. His unforgettable work will be presented by editor Ann Goldstein and scholar Marco Belpoliti.

Tuesday, November 1, 2016 5:30pm